EDICATION

For his unceasing interest in education and music . . .

For his support to all school activities and functions . . .

For his encouragement to students—his helping hand always extended . . .

For his ready smile, friendly eyes, and enlightening personality . . .

For his sincerity in all that he does and believes . . .

We dedicate our 1959 MARSHALLITE to Mr. Charles Troxell.

Prelude

Music is an outlook on life
Music is an interpretation of life,
Music is life.

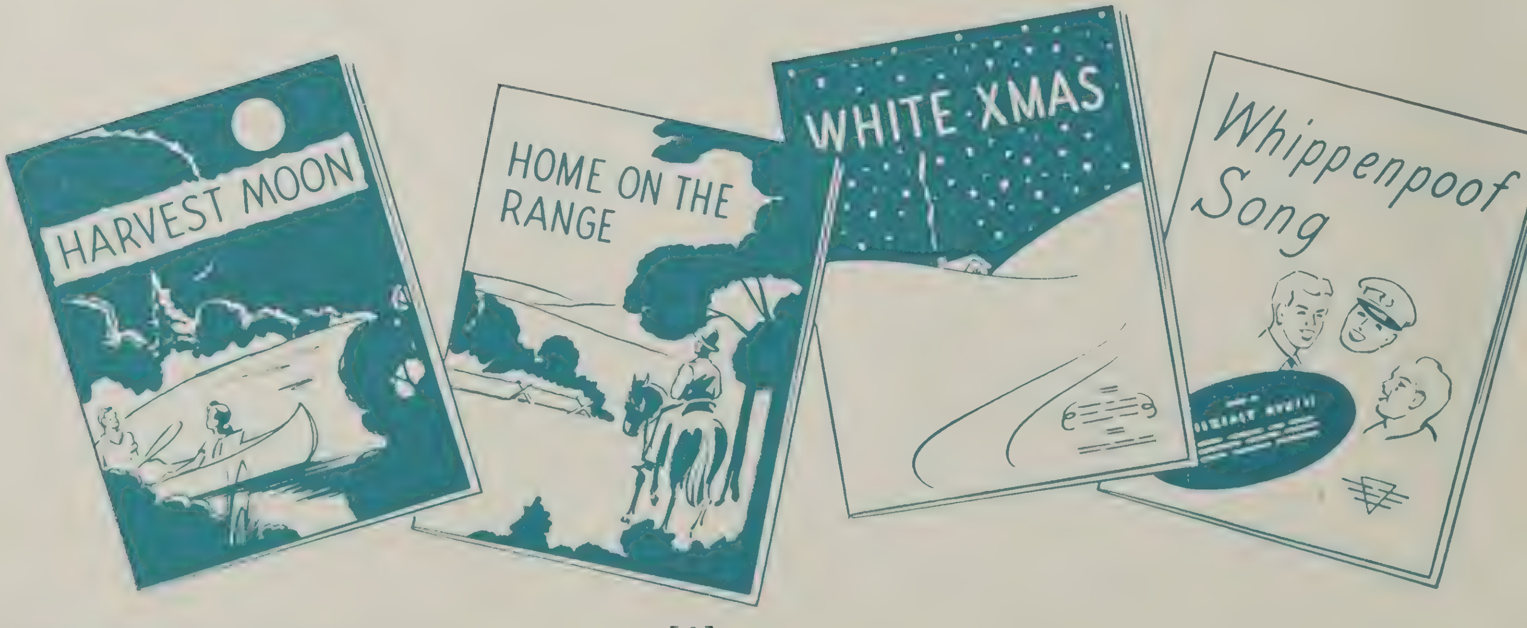
WHAT mood, what element, what situation hasn't been expressed through the beautiful notes of the musician? From the primitive rhythms of the cave man, through the classic period of the great composers, and to the popular and jazz tunes of today, man has captured his feelings in music.

Music is so interwoven into our daily routine that it would be impossible to remove those colorful threads.

We enjoy music as entertainment. A favorite old tune may bring us many treasured memories. When we are happy we sing for the sheer joy of singing. We praise God with our songs; we honor our country with our songs.

Music has enriched our lives and added joy to the world. With a song in our hearts and a prayer on our lips, we shall go forth into the world to take our rightful place as citizens, parents, and workers in our respective fields. We shall have our share of troubles and we shall have our successes—and we shall express them through song.

It would be a better world, indeed, if each of us would sing a little more, pray a little harder, and strive to make life a little more pleasant for the other fellow.



Then there were these

MUSIC THRU THE YEARS

THE

John Marshall is more than a school. It is the focus of happy and momentous memories that we shall cherish always. Recalling them will curve our lips with nostalgic smiles.

Here we learned; here we grew; and here our future lives began to take shape. Our songs, our music, our successes, and our defeats were all a part of our high school life.

Our years at John Marshall have been good years—years to remember.

The School Board and Administrative Staff

THE Richmond School Board meets regularly once a month and then there are many special meetings. The making of school laws, the interpreting of regulations, and the welfare of today's and tomorrow's school children are the business of members of the board. Their lot is not an easy one, but with the aid of school principals, teachers, and counselors they help to make the life of each student a better one. Members of this important organization are: Lewis F. Powell, Jr., Board Chairman; Mrs. Kenneth F. Lee, Board Vice-Chairman; Booker T. Bradshaw, Board Member; Frank S. Calkins, Board Member; Edward C. Peple, Board Member; Dr. H. I. Willett, Superintendent; Thomas C. Little, Assistant Superintendent and Clerk of the Board; William H. Deierhoi, Assistant Superintendent and Agent of the Board; Lucien D. Adams, Assistant Superintendent; and Henry M. Eubank, Deputy Clerk of the Board.

SCHOOL DAYS AT J. M.

By Martha Phelps

A Marshallite's dream come true at last—graduation! So many things have happened in the four years we've been at John Marshall—years we shall always remember, especially our senior year.

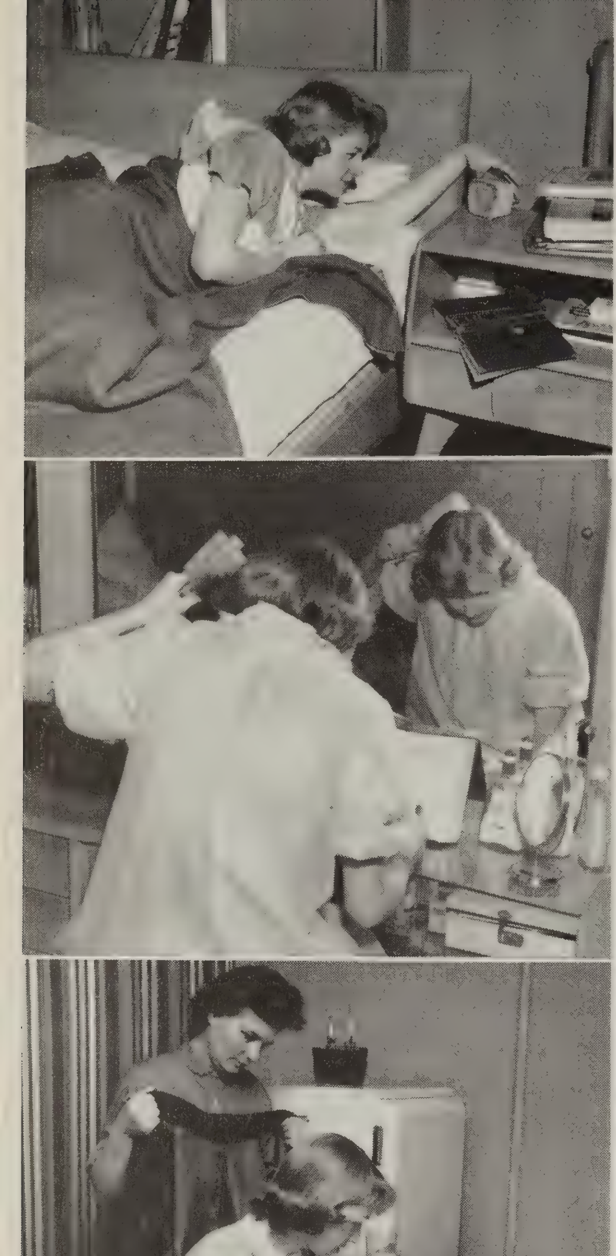
In September we had an increased enrollment, with 1,781 students entering J. M. Luckily for the boys, the girls outnumbered them 921 to 860. J. M. also added ten new members to the faculty.

After long hard practicing, the football team started off the season with a thrilling win over Petersburg. Pep rallies held on the front lawn of the John Marshall building received enthusiastic support. The annual JM-TJ game on November 21 climaxed the season. For the first time a radio station, WLEE, broadcast the pep rally preceding the game from both schools, switching from one school to the other. Gala crowds really displayed their school spirit at the rally and the game, where Miss Justice and Miss Jeff were crowned.

The end of the first six weeks of school found everything back in full swing, especially after the results of the six weeks' work came out on report cards. The old routine of early to rise and off to school five days a week dominated our lives.

One hundred and twenty-five seniors observed John Marshall Day at the Richmond Area Community Chest Luncheon on Monday, October 27.

On November 4, at a penny a vote, government classes held a mock Congressional election. After the election, all the pennies were given to the Junior Red Cross.



"Any day is bad that starts with getting up in the morning."

"To pass or not to pass; that is the question."

"Nothing like stuffing down cereal, coffee, and Shakespeare for breakfast."

"Getting to school takes split-second timing."

7 - 6 - 5 - 4 - 3 - 2 - 1 - Zero! Hurray!

John Marshall honored its war dead in the traditional Armistice Day ceremony on November 11 at eleven o'clock. Students gathered in front of the John Marshall building, taps were played, the colors dipped, and the wreaths were placed.

The Key Clubbers battled members of the faculty on November 26 in a "cool" basketball game, with the Key Clubbers winning by a close two points. It was quite a game, with students cheering first for one team and then the other.

Baskets of food contributed by homerooms made the stage a festive affair for the Thanksgiving assembly. The baskets were taken to Sheltering Arms and Crippled Children's Hospitals and the Home for Incurables.

On December 6 the Girls' Athletic Association presented its annual talent show. The theme, "Justice Dream," represented a typical "senior year" at J. M.

To create the proper atmosphere and spirit of Christmas among the students, the senior class presented the Christmas pageant, picturing the Nativity in five scenes. The choir caroled through the halls the last day before the holidays.

The weatherman delighted Marshallites with two "snow" holidays, December 12 and 15. Fortunately, they came on Friday and Monday, giving us a long week end and enhancing our holiday spirit.

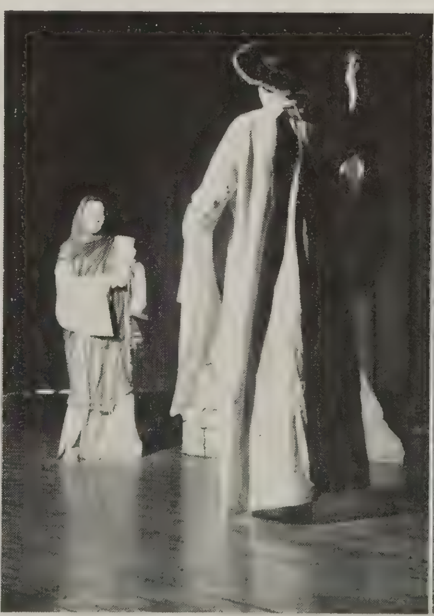
January 24 found juniors and seniors whisked into a blue and green Underwater Wonderland, dancing to the music of the Knight Rockers, with stereophonic sound and mood lighting and with

A salute to our heroes.

"I'm High School Born"

"Hurrah For Justice"

"There's No Business Like Show Business"



"Silent Night"

"A hundred and one pounds of fun—
that's my little Honey-Bun"

"I Could Have Danced All Night"

"Give a Cheer, Give a Cheer"

"Rhythm of the Sea" as the theme. The winners of Who's Who for the February graduating class were introduced and led a Grand March. The class presented a gift to their sponsor, Mrs. Warinner.

February 2 finally rolled around—graduation! One hundred and twenty-eight seniors received their diplomas and were now on their way to becoming the "citizens of tomorrow," applying the knowledge and experience they had gained at Jayem.

The basketball team had a fine season, ending with a 14-7 over-all record. It finished third in the Central District Tournament, defeating Tee Jay and Petersburg.

The John Marshall Corps of Cadets honored its sponsors on March 21 at the semi-annual Sponsor's Day ceremonies. As each cadet pinned the colors on his sponsor, he renewed his pledge to honor and protect members of the fair sex.

On May 1 the band went to Winchester for the Apple Blossom Festival Parade and came happily home with a first place trophy and a third place drum major's trophy.

The juniors and seniors found themselves in a Hawaiian Paradise at the Jr.-Sr. Prom on May 9. Palm trees, tropical birds, sea shells, butterflies, and flowers helped create the atmosphere and enhanced the beauty of the prom as the students danced to the music of The Leaguers. Winners of Who's Who titles for the June graduating class were introduced carrying ukuleles and parasols.

Forgotten days on Mississippi riverboats were recalled with the theme of "Showboat" in the May Day festivities. Members of the G. A. A. and the girls' gym classes provided this fascinating entertainment.

Final preparations for graduation, cramming for exams, exchanging calling cards, signing annuals, and making summer vacation plans filled the last few weeks for seniors. Then came June 13, the big day for June graduates, ending J. M. history for the 1959 graduates.

May Day

On May 6, John Marshall's Girls' Athletic Association sponsored the May Day ceremonies that have become traditional at John Marshall for many years. Bobbie McBride reigned as May Queen, and Ginger Stewart was her maid of honor.

The princesses of the senior class were Janet Bowery, Lois Frye, Patty Ganzert, Stella Georges, Katherine McKeone, and Dot Parker. Two princesses were also selected from each of the lower grades. The princesses and the maid of honor wore pastel gowns; the queen, traditional white.

The theme of May Day was Showboat. Various physical education classes gave their interpretations of songs—both old and new—typifying life on a Mississippi showboat.

Girls in black leotards carrying black and white polka-dotted umbrellas gave their interpretation of an old favorite, "Nola."

Following "Nola" came "Dinah," and then "Tomboy," a tale of a mischievous tomboy becoming an enchanting young lady.

The tempo changed to Latin America with a tango to "Spanish Dancers" and a mombo to "Cuban Dancers."

"A Dream," a soft instrumental number, concluded the dancing.

The winding of the May pole ended the program.

"Miss Justice"

Miss Justice . . . JEANNE TILLER

Jeanne Tiller, a high senior, was crowned Miss Justice of 1958 at the annual J. M.-T. J. ball game on Friday night, November 21, at the city stadium.

Ann Jenkins, Miss Justice of 1957, crowned the new Miss Justice at the pregame ceremony.

The princesses, Brenda Baughan, Charlotte Beverley, Rhoda Lush, Dot Parker, Martha Phelps, Jean Powell, Dixie Wood, and Harriette Woodson, accompanied Miss Justice on the John Marshall float, which was decorated as a miniature football field.

Like the other candidates, Jeanne possesses school spirit and participated in many school activities. She was sponsor of Battalion Staff, president of the Forum Club, president of her homeroom, and a member of the School Spirit Commission.

"I think being elected Miss Justice is one of the greatest honors any girl could receive at John Marshall," said Jeannie, "and I'm so happy to know that the student body of John Marshall chose me to represent them at this big occasion."

Preceding the Jayem-Teejay game on November 21, John Marshall held four pep rallies to build up support for the team.

Saturday night, November 22, a Victory Dance was held in the Richmond Room of the Richmond Hotel for the football players, cheerleaders, Miss Justice and the candidates for Miss Justice and their dates. Martha Phelps, a candidate for Miss Justice, said "I thing the Dad's Club and the mothers really did a great job in planning and making the dance enjoyable for everyone."

MUSIC THRU THE YEARS

ORGA

Clubs play a very important part at John Marshall. They promote better understanding between classmates, give students opportunities to make new friends, and encourage students to develop leadership and a practical knowledge of how to work with other people.

Whenever we recall "that old gang," it brings back many happy memories—memories of all the wonderful things which helped make our four years at John Marshall some of the happiest of our lives.

The Student Association is composed of the officers, the executive committee, homeroom presidents, and commissions. Members of the executive committee and officers are chosen in an election held during the spring semester.

In September and January orientation was held for the new students in order to familiarize them with the rules and activities of the school.

The activities of the executive committee for the year 1958-1959 comprised an installation assembly, the sponsoring of buses to out-of-town games, having the school songs mimeographed, a Thanksgiving assembly, weekly pep rallies and the night pep rally before the J. M.-T. J. game, a Christmas party, a shoe shower, the selling of pencils, and the promotion of Brotherhood Week.

The two main activities were organizing classes and establishing an honor system. After meetings and discussions, it was decided that a junior class organization might be possible in the near future. The character commission plans to introduce the honor system in the fall term of 1959. The committee hopes that it will help to instill in the students of J. M. the highest principles of conduct and character.

The executive committee ends each school year with a picnic held at Forest Hill Park, where everyone enjoys both food and recreation.

To Miss Raffo and Mrs. Warinner, our sponsors, the members of the executive committee wish to express appreciation for the time spent in guiding us in the past year.

John Marshall's Junior Red Cross won a place in the national limelight this year. The December issue of the Journal, the American Junior Red Cross Magazine, highlighted the work of Junior Red Cross organizations in Richmond. The theme of this article was developed through the activities of the Richmond organizations.

Cross-Wise, a miniature training center, was held at Second Presbyterian Church last fall. John Marshall representatives climaxed the banquet by presenting a skit entitled "A Memory, a Vision, and Reality," which featured Clara Barton's life and the work of others who fought for the organizations and continuance of the Red Cross. A scene from this play, enacted by Mary Jane Newton, Martha Phelps, and Warren Chenault, was pictured in the national magazine. Other phases of Junior Red Cross work were also illustrated.

Jayem students contributed over $300 in the 1958 enrollment campaign drive. Room 305 and Room 109W collected the most money and, as a reward for good work, were given their favorite kind of candy.

The Medical College of Virginia received help from John Marshall's Junior Red Cross this year. About fifty pupils took the training course offered there, many of whom have been working in the wards, thus carrying out Jayem's Junior Red Cross motto: "Service."

Those students who had contributed twenty-five to fifty hours of service, either helping at the Chapter House or as hospital aides, received recognition at the Awards Assembly May 27, and they later received their twenty-five or fifty hour pins.

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service are the ideals and standards of the National Honor Society.

Each semester the Honor Society at John Marshall inducts new members who excel in these four ideals. These students must also have a scholastic average of 90 or above and be approved by the faculty and Honor Society members. To be inducted into the Honor Society is the greatest honor one may receive in high school.

Each term members choose the projects they wish to see carried out. Projects for the fall semester were selecting thoughts for the week to put on the bulletin each Monday and working with the Character Commission to install an honor code at John Marshall.

Honor Society meetings are held on the second and fourth Thursday of each month and usually consist of a business meeting and a program. For one of the fall programs, a luncheon was served on November 13 in the Conference Room for members and special guests from the faculty.

Eight hundred and eighty-two Marshallites have been inducted into the John Marshall Chapter of the National Honor Society since it was first organized in 1939. During the year 1958, 32 members were inducted.

At the closing of each term, each member makes a personal data sheet for the Honor Society Scrapbook, which contains a record of all former members of the J. M. Honor Society.

The John Marshall Key Club is one of the most outstanding clubs of our school. Its existence is made possible by the sponsorship of the Richmond Kiwanis Club and the guidance of Mr. James C. Harwood, Jr., faculty advisor.

The society is one of more than a thousand Key Clubs spread throughout the entire country. This group, which serves both school and students, is composed of thirty-five members who must rank in the upper third of their class, be recommended by a teacher, and voted on by the club members.

The club assists in many ways to make various school functions and activities successful. Members from the club sold cokes at school dances and checked coats. They decorated a car for the John Marshall vs. Thomas Jefferson game and helped decorate the float. To encourage a better understanding between faculty and students, the club held a basketball game with the faculty and club members as opponents. All the students were invited. A banquet was held for the Key Clubbers' fathers, and the mothers were honored with a luncheon on Mothers' Day.

Activities are planned to build the young men in the society both mentally and spiritually. An assembly was sponsored at which orations were given by Warren Chenault and Marty Richwine. This was the first step in the American Legion Oratorical Contest. On one Sunday all the club members attended church together. Various vocational programs were given at the club meetings.

Besides the many functions undertaken to better the school, the students, and the community, members of the organization found time to enjoy entertaining social get-togethers. The club sweethearts played a large part in providing social functions and adding interest to the meetings.

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization composed of students enrolled in a business subject and outstanding in that field.

This organization holds that technical skills are not enough. Simply reading about educational, political, social, civic, and labor organizations can scarcely prepare people adequately for intelligent participation. The FBLA teaches its members how to operate an organization, prevent minority controls, and bring about desirable social, political, and economic changes through organization.

Some of the members served as a registration committee at the Virginia Business Education Association convention, which was held in Richmond this year.

Every year the John Marshall FBLA members participate in the annual regional meeting at Mary Washington College and also attend the annual state convention.

This organization, however, is not always bent on business; it has socials at which members enjoy chatting, singing, playing games, and eating. This year the group enjoyed a Christmas party and banquet at the Hot Shoppe.

The FBLA is proud to have as its sponsors Miss Pela Bobbitt and Mr. Carl Jorgensen.

They attend school in the mornings and work during the afternoon at jobs relating to distribution. The purpose of the club is to stimulate professional improvement. This is accomplished by bringing in outside speakers to discuss salesmanship, interviewing, display, advertising.

The D. E. group sponsored a Christmas party for the Methodist Children's Home. In the spring a WLLY hop was held for the entire student body. The D. E. convention, which was held in April, gave the students an opportunity to compete with other clubs from the State. The goal of each being to win national recognition through the national DECA convention.

These and other activities make members of the D. E. club a busy and well-informed group at John Marshall.

The Diversified Occupations Training Program at John Marshall is designed primarily to offer select high school students an opportunity to prepare themselves for a specific trade or industrial occupation of their own choice through part-time employment while still in school.

The program operates through a cooperative agreement with employers, students, parents, and the school. Only students in the junior and senior years are eligible. A student meeting the requirements for entrance is permitted to select employment in one of several approved occupations. Employers co-operate with the school, serving as the students' training agency. Much care and thought are given by the co-ordinator and counselor to the satisfactory placement of each student. The student then receives training in the occupation of his choice under actual working conditions, devoting a minimum of three hours a day, five days a week to work on the job. The student devotes three hours a day to school work, receiving one hour of instruction specifically related to his job and two hours of instruction in subjects required for graduation. Credit is granted toward graduation for satisfactory work on the job. In addition, the learner is paid an hourly wage by his employer.

D. O. Club activities in which the D. O. students participate comprise annual State conventions, Employer-Employee conferences, regular monthly meetings, speakers from business and industry, and contests on local and state level.

Vocational Office Training is a coordinated work experience program offered to seniors who intend to work in an office after graduation. The Vocational Office Training Class is designed for students who are enrolled in the Business Department. It is possible to earn two points a semester: one for classroom instruction, and one for actual experience.

V. O. T. offers specialized pre-employment training. It gives an opportunity to try out in a real job situation and saves time in discovering one's real interest and ability. V. O. T. enables a person to earn while learning. It assures him immediate full-time employment upon graduation, and accelerates promotion. It also helps develop a feeling of confidence in one's own ability. In addition to these advantages, the program provides an opportunity for participation in the V. O. T. Club, a local chapter of the national organization, Future Business Leaders of America.

Since V. O. T. students have proved themselves to be very desirable employees, there are many jobs available for them. Seniors in this program are employed as clerk-stenographers, clerk-typists, comptometer operators, bookkeepers, bank messengers and many others.

Our motto is: "It pays in many ways, to earn while you learn."

The Future Teachers Club of John Marshall was founded in 1954 and named the Charles Anthony Club in honor of a former John Marshall teacher, Miss Charles Anthony. The main purpose of the club is to secure and maintain a balanced supply of qualified teachers. Through the club potential teachers receive many realistic experiences to help them develop readiness for college programs of teacher education.

The club has participated in many activities. Members of the club have made favors for the teachers, acted as hostesses at the Richmond League of Teachers Meetings, served as orientation aids, presented an assembly on teaching, sent Christmas cards to retired teachers, and visited Longwood College.

The club attended the VEA Convention, and two members of the club, Brenda Epperson and Judy Currin, made a poster on "Teaching as a Career" which won second place in the state contest.

Through programs on group dynamics, college information, self-evaluation, and vocational opportunities, members get a clear view of what awaits them in the field of teaching.

The Future Teachers Club meets the first Wednesday of each month in Room 109 with its sponsor, Mrs. Zada D. Carver.

The FNC was organized in 1955 with the help of Mrs. Gordon, John Marshall's nurse, and Mrs. Sutphin, city sponsor of the club. The purpose of the club is to impress upon high-school students the importance of health and acquaint them with careers that are offered in this field. Since the club is primarily interested in nursing, it tries to inform members of the requirements of the various schools of nursing.

Speakers are asked to the meetings to tell members of the latest information about nursing. Projects offer all members an opportunity to participate in club activities. This year members filled envelopes for the Henrico Tuberculosis Association, supplied Sheltering Arms Hospital with tray favors for Thanksgiving, made additional favors for MCV's rheumatic fever ward, and sent Easter favors to the Cripple Children's Hospital.

Reports from other schools in the area with Future Nurses' Clubs keep the members informed of the progress other clubs are making. Field trips are also planned with club members from other schools. This year's joint trips included tours of St. Luke's, Stuart Circle, and Johnston-Willis Hospitals.

At the annual banquet at the end of the spring term, the Nurses' Auxiliary awards pins to all members who attend three-fourth of the meetings. New officers are installed on this occasion.

It is the hope of every member that the club may continue to grow and be of increasing service in the years to come.

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization that exists for the purpose of promoting better citizenship through good sportsmanship. It was organized in 1949 by Miss Helen McKenney. Mrs. Elizabeth Royster was sponsor until mid-terms when Miss McKenney took over again.

The members, representing each grade in John Marshall, participate in many sports as archery, bowling, horseback riding, swimming, tennis, volleyball, apparatus (which includes John Marshall's newly acquired trampoline), recreational games, and water ballet. Points are awarded for each individual's participation in a sport, and are totaled at the end of the year to determine the award winner. The 100-point award is a pin with G. A. A. inscribed on it and for 300 points, the gard to the pin is given. A J. M. letter is given for the 500-point award.

Each year the G. A. A. presents a talent and a fashion show. This year's subject for the talent show was "Justice Dream," which portrayed the events in the high-school life of a Marshallite.

May Day is also a G. A. A. project, held each year on the school lawn. "Showboat" was this year's title of the May Day festivities.

This year the G. A. A. sponsored a contest in which all members competed for the opportunity to attend G. A. A. Camp at Virginia Beach. The five girls with the highest number of points are the winners.

The Girls' Athletic Association climaxes each school year with a picnic for the entire club.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll

Sponsor..........................Miss Mary Gladys Lambert

The quill and scroll have long been recognized as the symbols of a writer. Jayem's chapter of Quill and Scroll was organized in 1930, and is the only international organization at school.

Principles of the society are truth, initiative, opportunity, leadership, cultural attainment, friendship, and loyalty.

Members are inducted in the fall and the spring of every school year. The John Marshall Chapter enrolled fifteen seniors during the fall semester of 1958.

Those meeting the qualifications represented the Monocle, the Marshallite, and the Record staffs.

Quill and Scroll members take active parts in other school activities. They may work on more than one publication. Many are members of the National Honor Society, the Student Association Executive Committee, Student Commissions, and also participate in many outside activities.

To become a Quill and Scroll member, one must meet certain qualifications. He must rank in the upper third of his class, have done outstanding work on a school publication, be recommended by the chapter sponsor, Miss Mary G. Lambert, and the executive secretary of the Quill and Scroll, Mr. Lester G. Benz.

in the spring of 1959 thirteen members were inducted.

Library Staff

Sponsors:

Miss Marjorie L. Dearhart and Miss Tressie V. Myers

Members of the Library Staff are students who volunteer to devote a part of each school day to assisting in routine duties of the library. Any student who can meet certain scholastic requirements and standards of efficiency is eligible for membership. A service organization, the Library Staff is scheduled to meet on the first Tuesday of each month, primarily to discuss problems concerned with the various tasks performed by student members. Often meetings are devoted to discussion as to how the staff can improve library service to the school public.

By means of a rotating schedule, the responsibility of each person varies from day to day to include the checking of permits, charging and slipping books, collecting fines, shelving books, filing of cards, writing overdue notices, checking of magazines and newspapers, assisting in the preparation of new books for the shelf, and running errands. Student Aides often give individual assistance to fellow students by helping to locate a book on the shelf, assisting in the use of the card catalog, or perhaps suggesting a book that they recently found interesting.

Service credits are given Aides who have performed their duties satisfactorily, and at the Awards Assembly in the spring they receive service award certificates if they have sufficient credits.

The assistance given other students and the service rendered to the school, together with the information acquired in connection with library techniques, combine to make membership in this organization an invaluable experience.

The Girls' Glee Club is composed of thirty-five to forty-five singers each semester, depending on the number of available competent students and their freedom to schedule the rehearsals without conflict with other subjects. The members are selected on a basis of vocal ability, musicianship, and seniority, as well as qualities of cooperation and dependability.

This organization represents John Marshall High School at all functions in the school or community when a vocal group is required to perform. Until September 1958 the chorus had only one twenty-minute rehearsal weekly, because there was no more time available; this handicap was somewhat overcome by the condition that nearly all members had a regular vocal class daily, so there has always been a capable group. Now, however, they meet in a scheduled class period; this results in improved performance and an enlarged repertoire. The girls elect their own officers each semester, and assist the teacher in selecting the numbers for programs.

During the school year 1958-1959, the club sang for the following activities: the football rally broadcast, the Thanksgiving assembly, the Christmas pageant, the Easter program, the spring concert, and the baccalaureate and commencement services in February and June. It also caroled in the halls of the John Marshall and the Wythe Buildings and for Mr. Willett.

Christian Youth League

Fellowship with Christians and with Christ has been the aim of the John Marshall Christian Youth League since it was organized in 1937. The League had a most profitable year under the sponsorship of Miss Hallie Hootman and Miss Fannie Rowe Brown, moving to the auditorium because the Conference Room, the usual meeting place, could no longer accommodate the increased membership.

This year the League sponsored Vicky Clausen, a blue-eyed strawberry-blonde four-year-old from the Virginia Methodist Home. It also adopted a needy family in Kentucky and sent them clothes.

Members enjoy working as nurses' aides at Sheltering Arms Hospital. A stocking was filled at Christmas for the patients at Sheltering Arms. Each member brought a small gift or fruit wrapped in bright paper.

Interesting speakers and discussions, movies, skits, and group singing highlighted the year's programs, and a newly organized choir provided special music.

The League has had a choir this year which presented special music at the meetings. They practiced on Thursday afternoons. Everyone enjoys hearing this group.

Last, and of special interest, was the Youth League Banquet, at which officers for next year were installed.

The Parent-Teacher-Student Association plays an important role at JM in that it serves as a liason between the home and the school, making it possible for the parents and students to have a clearer understanding of what is going on in the school and to have a voice in shaping some of the policies. The Executive Committee, which consists of four officers, three teachers, three parents, and three students, meets twice a year—in the late summer or early fall to make plans for the year, and in the spring to evaluate what has been done. Also, there is an Advisory Committee which meets at times with the principal to help decide upon procedures to follow. All of this leads to a more democratic school and to better public relations; it increases the feeling among parents and students that JM is OUR school and we must do everything possible to make it BETTER and BETTER.

The PTSA sponsors two general meetings a year. One is held early in the fall in order that parents may meet their children's teachers and get a glimpse of the courses the children will be taking and the standards the teachers expect. The second meeting is held in the spring, when new officers are elected. In addition to the general meetings, the PTSA sponsors three study groups each year: Bridging the Gap Between Junior and Senior High School, Bridging the Gap Between High School and College, Bridging the Gap Between High School and Work. These meetings are a very strong link in our guidance program, for outstanding people serve as panelists and discussion leaders.

For all these reasons, the PTSA occupies a very important niche at JM.

The Forum Club gives its members an opportunity to cultivate their interests in many different topics concerned with current affairs. Meeting twice a month, this organization tries to provide by means of informal discussions, panels, movies, and guest speakers, a clearer and more thorough understanding of present-day problems in order to promote good citizenship.

Preceding the November election, Mr. Saunier, Representative Gary's Assistant, and Mr. Ryder, Republican candidate for Congress, led a spirited discussion of campaign issues. Alaska was the subject of one meeting, with a movie and discussion of this newly-admitted state. Two programs were devoted to teen-age problems. The Christian Youth League and Forum Club held a joint meeting, at which time Miss McClintic showed slides of her recent trip to Europe, including the World's Fair at Brussels. Another time, three of our foreign students participated in a discussion of Christmas customs and traditions of other countries.

Club projects included representation at the Jayem-Teejay football game by means of a car decorated by its members. Several students also attended the Virginia High School Forum.

A Christmas party and a dinner meeting at the Hot Shoppes comprised the social functions of the year.

The Jayem Orchestra, which has twenty-five members, has enjoyed working under the conductorship of Mr. Paul Cartwright during the fifth period throughout the year.

The first semester the Orchestra played for the Community Chest and at East End Junior High School. It also played for the baccalaureate and graduation program of the February class.

The second semester it presented the annual Spring Concert on May 15 with the cooperation of the vocal classes, and played at the June baccalaureate ceremony.

When not practicing for a coming event, members read and listened to recordings of famous compositions.

Many players did individual work. Ten string players were fortunate enough to be selected to go to the Sixteenth Annual All State String Orchestra, which was held in Arlington on November 14, 15, and 16. Nine of these same members also went to Roanoke as part of a hundred piece orchestra, which gave a concert at the Southern Music Educators Conference. In addition to this, an ensemble of nine string players took part in the school talent show.

As you may have guessed by now, Jayem Orchestra members had no time to "fiddle away."

The John Marshall Science Club started a new project this year—taking slides of all phases of life at Jayem. Included are pictures of the school buildings, club meetings, staffs of the publications, the Corps of Cadets, and social functions such as the sock hop. Packages of approximately 50 slides will be exchanged with interested groups in the United States and foreign countries. A recorded tape explaining each scene will accompany each set of slides.

The purpose of "The Cosmic Rays" is to interest the students of John Marshall in taking more science and, also, to give them an opportunity to learn outside the classroom. The two sponsors, Mrs. Mary Warinner and Miss Eloise Davis, are always ready to help the club with any of its undertakings. "The Cosmic Rays" are an affiliate of the Science Clubs of America and the Virginia Junior Academy of Science.

The programs of the Science Club have been varied. Guest speakers talked on aluminum, electricity, the work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the effects of radio activity. Movies have been shown, including several by Walt Disney.

Groups of six visited Experiment, Incorporated. Another field trip took "The Cosmic Rays" to the telephone company.

The Annual Science Fair was held on Tuesday, April 7 and Thursday, April 9. Projects from general science, biology, chemistry, and physics were exhibited in Rooms 308, 309, and 208.

Another new feature of the Science Club was a current scientific news report given by James Hicks at each meeting.

A picnic completed the year's agenda.

Officers for the 1958-1959 session were Mary Jane Newton, president; Stuart Hamilton, vice-president; Peggy James, secretary; and Jack Shinault, treasurer.

Sans Souci, John Marshall's club for interested French students, has had two semesters of pleasurable activities. The programs of the club have always been focused on France and the French people. The club meets on the second Friday of each month in 305, Miss Robertson's room.

Frances Washi, who lived in France two years, showed the group a very interesting film of her life and travels in France, with a personal narrative giving further details of her experiences. She also exhibited a collection of dolls from various parts of France and explained the significance of the various costumes.

A French exchange student, Alain Werbrouck, who paid our club a visit, talked in French as he related the story of his life in France. Then in English, Alain answered questions concerning his impressions of America and opinions of American schools. Alain graduated from his native school, but attends Thomas Jefferson High School as a senior.

This December the Christmas party refreshments provided a touch of French atmosphere with pink and blue cupcakes, two of which contained a bean. The boy and girl who found the beans were "le roi" and "la reine" of "la fête."

Members of the club enjoy making favors for the annual foreign language banquet, which is held in the spring. It is on this occasion that all language students have the opportunity of seeing or taking part in skits given in the foreign language of their choice.

Even in the paper drives, which are the source of extra money for the annual picture, the members have fun working together.

Remember Foreign Language Week, when you drank "l'eau frauche," and when you went up and down "l'excalier"? C'etait le club français! Bonne chance! Bon voyage! Adieu!

The John Marshall Latin Club organized in September, 1957, began its second year of activities in September 1958 with seventeen members. Since the club picture was taken, four members have been graduated and nine new members have been added: Claire Bethel, Tommy Fallen, Billy Moss, Branch Crooks, Charlotte Thompson, Brenda Setzer, Burgwyn Stith, Maria Konovaloff, Ellen Lumsden, bringing the present membership to twenty-two. The club is sponsored by the advanced Latin class and meets the first Monday of each month during the sixth period.

As members of the Junior Classical League, the members strive to widen their horizons and deepen their knowledge of Greek and Roman culture. The club programs aim to make the study of Latin more interesting and to arouse in students an appreciation of the debt of our modern culture to classical antiquity. During the year, the club has enjoyed many interesting and varied programs. Mr. Thrift Tyson, our Spanish teacher, showed slides of Italy and Rome taken while he was in Europe during World War II. Miss Marian West, teacher of Latin at St. Catherine's School, gave an illustrated lecture on Cicero and scenes in Rome and Greece taken during a summer of study at the American Academy at Rome.

At Christmas the club celebrated the Roman Saturnalia with an original play written by Mary Anne Rose entitled "Santa vs. Saturn." The members costumed and dramatized the play, with Tommy Reynolds, Maxine Foore, Carl Throckmorton, Mary Anne Rose, Danny Dillon, and Sandra Blackwell as Roman citizens celebrating the Roman Saturnalia, a December festival out of which some of our Christmas customs later grew. The club attended an illustrated art lecture on Rome given at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts by the Metropolitan Museum of New York. At the Language Banquet at the John Marshall Hotel in April the club dramatized two of Ovid's Metamorphoses, "Atalanta's Race" and "Daphne and Apollo," which were adapted by Tommy Reynolds, Maxine Foore, and Sally Crenshaw.

This spring the club entered the State Latin Tournament at the University of Richmond and submitted several essays on Cicero in the State Essay Contest sponsored by the Classical Association of Virginia. Last year Frank Robinson won second place in the state with his essay on Julius Caesar. The club awards two silver medals for outstanding scholarship in Latin. These were presented in the Awards Assembly last June to George Glass and Edith Collier.

Having skits, movies, speakers, singing Spanish songs, and playing well-known games in Spanish are some of the activities of the Don Juan Club.

This club was created especially for those students who study Spanish or have studied it. The purpose of the club is to help Spanish students acquire a better knowledge of Spanish-speaking countries, their people and customs, and a better understanding of the language.

"Adelante, siempre, adelante," forward, always, forward, is the motto of the Don Juan Club, and it best expresses the aims of its members.

The Christmas party, the big program of the year, consisted of refreshments, games, and other interesting activities.

As customary, the Don Juan Club helped to present the annual foreign language banquet on Friday, April 17, at Hotel John Marshall. It helped make favors, and the president, Wilma Delesk, made the welcoming address.

The Don Juan Club meets on the third Friday of each month in 112W with its sponsor, Mr. Thrift W. Tyson, Jr.

Through activities with a "Spanish slant," the Don Juan Club has attempted to make the study of Spanish interesting and vital. The club has caused Spanish to be more than just a part of the academic curriculum. The monthly meetings of the Don Juan Club have allowed the study of Spanish to become an interesting extra-curricular activity of which the members are justly proud. The members also enjoy social events.

The Literary Society of John Marshall High School was reorganized in the fall of 1957 with Mrs. Anne Vaughan as sponsor. The main interest of the society is literature—books, poems, movies, and plays. The society also stressed poetry and essay contest. This year several members received certificates for their poems and essays that were published in scholastic magazines.

The Literary Society has had very interesting programs for 1958-1959. Mrs. Fred B. Dixon spoke at the February meeting on "The Song of America," and Charles McDowell, reporter for the Richmond News Leader, was guest speaker at the March meeting. The president, Warren Chenault, told of his trip to Detroit for the National Teen-age Press Conference at another meeting.

The society, which meets on the second Friday of each month, consist of almost forty members, all of whom are recommended by their English teachers. A silver pin, shaped like a scroll, is membership identification.

The Literary Society ended the term with a spring social planned by Faye Martin, held at Regina Akers' home.

Drama Class

Teacher.......................... MISS MARY PEPLE

The Drama Class, a regular part of the speech course, is taught by Miss Mary Peple in Room 209, which is equipped with stage, curtains, lights, a storage-dressing room, and cabinets for properties and costumes. The term begins with a short study of the history of drama. After this, the class is cast in a play and sets about rehearsing in small groups about the room. Each member of the class serves on a committee with a choice of costumes, bulletin boards, props, stage, library, or house.

Members of the cast have the privilege of choosing which class they wish to see their play, but no class may be invited more than once.

Some of the plays given this year were "The Mayor and the Manicure," "Letters," "Never Too Old," "Wisdom Teeth," "Greek to You," "The Dear Departed," "Always a Prisoner," "The Woman in the Freight Car," "The Valiant," "Fourteen," "Overtones," "Holding a Husband," "Wrong Numbers," "Three's a Crowd," and scenes from "Dear Brutus," "The Importance of Being Earnest," and "Quality Street."

Each student keeps a record of his activities during the term in a drama notebook of his own design, with pictures, programs, settings, notes, and reviews.

The class combines hard work and fun to teach poise, independence, cooperation, responsibility, and self-confidence.

During the past year the Monocle staff continued its mad rush to get the paper out on time. MONOCLE DAY always found Room 104 in a state of confusion, but only once did the Monocle fail to come out on time.

Again the staff had female editors for both semesters. Two co-business managers shared the business problems for the year.

The fall staff was unusually small, but the spring staff returned to regular size.

The Monocle supported the Community Chest by sending three hostesses to help at the luncheons. It also helped in the Junior Red Cross and March of Dimes campaigns.

Many on the staff became members of Quill and Scroll, the International Honor Society for High School Journalists, and the National Honor Society.

As in former years, a representative attended the Southern Interscholastic Press Association conference in Lexington, where the Monocle placed first in the competition.

Both semesters ended with the traditional press banquet.

The Monocle staff continues its work to give John Marshall the best school paper possible.

The Record, John Marshall's literary magazine, of, by, and for the students of John Marshall, was first published in 1909. The staff is very happy to announce its Golden Anniversary of 50 years of publication and achievement.

These 50 years have been very busy ones for The Record. Its first editor was William Parrish. For 20 years the Record had no regular sponsor, the teachers at John Marshall taking turns in sponsoring it. One year The Record staff published five issues. Three years ago it was cut down to two issues for school year.

Members of The Record staff are recommended by the English teachers and chosen by the staff members. The staff meets every Monday after school with Mr. Beverly, the adviser.

The Record is well known for its fine achievement in the literary field, and it has been consulted for advice and suggestions by other schools beginning a literary magazine for their own. It has been exchanged with publications of various high schools throughout the United States for comparisons and new ideas. Each year the Edgar Allan Poe Trophy Award is presented to the student offering the most outstanding contribution to the magazine.

The May 1959 issue was dedicated by the members of The Record staff to Mr. Walter F. Beverly, the faithful adviser for 30 years, whose literary advice and guidance enabled it to win the All-American Honor Rating, NSPA, in 1943, 1946, 1949, and 1950; First Class Honor Rating, NSPA, in 1947 and 1957; and the First-Place Trophy, SIPA, in 1954, and Honor Award Rating, SIPA, in 1959.

The chief purpose of The Record is to encourage all students of John Marshall to express themselves creatively and share their ideas and feelings with their fellow Marshallites. Thus The Record has been, and will continue to be, a profitable and worthwhile magazine.

The staff wishes to thank Billy Motley for his untiring efforts in making The Record successful during the 1958-1959 school year.

The Marshallite

If anyone passed Room 2C during the sixth period and looked in, he would have wondered what was going on. People were talking, some seemingly to themselves; typewriters were pounding; old yearbooks were spread on the tables; and, all in all, there was mass confusion. This, believe it or not, was the Marshallite editorial staff, busily at work on the annual, aided by the sponsor, Mrs. Mary T. Burnett.

Besides this cool, calm, and collected group of eager beavers, there are staff members who get the ads for the book. They meet every Thursday in Room 109, under the supervision of Mr. John S. Arnold.

The editor, Warren Chenault, really kept the staff busy this term in order to make the annual successful.

Shirley Robinson represented the Marshallite at the S. I. P. A. Convention in Lexington, Virginia.

To end the term with a bang, a banquet for the staff was held at Wright's Town House. Also during the term there were coke parties in Room 312. So it wasn't all work and no play for the staff members.

The staff worked hard, and every member felt rewarded when he saw the book in print. Of course, it would not have been possible without the never-tiring help of the sponsors.

To the seniors of 1959, the Marshallite will serve as a pleasant reminder of their school days at Jayem; but to the staff it will be a symbol of hard work, good times, and a wonderful phase of school life—putting together the annual.

John Marshall Cadet Alumni Association, Inc.

Organized 1946

The Cadet Alumni Association welcomes the new Class of 1959 to the long line of John Marshall graduates numbering over 21,000. We wish for each of you successful careers in your chosen field of business or in your further education.

Many alumni enjoy seeing their old high school acquaintances at the association's annual outing and dance, its meetings and the frequent informal get-togethers of individual classes.

Plan now to hold a reunion of your class and continue your high school friendships.

John Marshall Summer School

Summer schools were opened in Richmond in 1911, but it was not until 1932 that all summer classes offered in the city were held at John Marshall with a tuition charge for each student attending. Now pupils in the sixth through the twelfth grade may take subjects which provide enrichment for the regular program, acceleration toward graduation, or improvement in the mastery of courses partially completed. Post graduates, college students, as well as other adults, also enroll. In 1958, as a part of the John Marshall Summer School, classes were held in ten area schools to help students in the transition from semi-annual to annual promotion. In 1958 more than 2,900 students from nearly a hundred schools were enrolled for the summer session, with the majority of those enrolled taking new work.

John Marshall Evening School

Going to school is a daytime chore for the John Marshall student of 1959. For many an old-timer—Class of '50, say, or '40, or '30, or even '20—it has become a nightime pleasure. During the past ten years approximately 835 Jayem graduates have enrolled in the John Marshall Evening School.

In addition to that, more than 306 Tee Jay diploma holders have joined their one-time rivals in the further pursuit of learning at the nightly lighted building in the background of the home of Chief Justice John Marshall. During this same period some 2,400 graduates of other high schools have taken classes by candlelight, so to speak, after a hard day's work—in the very same classrooms in which day students thought they were having such a rough time.

This sort of thing has been going on almost from the first day John Marshall High School opened its doors. In fact, it was only two years after that momentous date (in 1911, to be exact) that Mr. W. C. Locker and two teachers started the John Marshall Night School. Before that first session was over, the enrollment had soared to almost 1,200 students, and a few more teachers, to be sure. Ever since then the Evening School has been a vital, dynamic factor in the adult education program of our city.

In addition to the high school students who have enrolled in the John Marshall Evening School during the past ten years, there has been a sizable group of students who, for one reason or another, have not had a chance to graduate from high school. A number of these, lacking only a few points, have earned sufficient credits by evening study to obtain their diplomas from John Marshall, Thomas Jefferson, or some other high school.

So, John Marshall at night, you see, is not a dull, dark, dismal pile of bricks and mortar. It is a structure pulsing with life, energy and enthusiasm. Since 1947, Mr. Oscar H. Parrish, well known to our day students, has been principal of the John Marshall Evening School.

MUSIC THRU THE YEARS

MILI

For many years both the students and the faculty here at John Marshall have been proud of the fine work of our Corps of Cadets. Everyone has been especially aware of the faithful efforts and precision-sharp drill displayed by the cadets in preparation for their annual federal inspection.

The purpose of the John Marshall Cadet Corps is to raise the scholastic standing of its members and to train them in leadership and prevention of war. As the band goes marching by, every Marshallite's heart swells with pride. John Marshall students are proud of their band and proud of John Marshall's Corps of Cadets.

The honor system of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets is designed to instill in the individual cadet a true sense of the Corps' motto, "Duty, Honor, Country," and to increase each cadet's desire to develop self-respect, pride, and a general consideration for the rights and welfare of others—vital factors in the forming of real character.

In order to achieve this goal, each cadet must resolve to implant these standards within himself. Should he fail to do so and encroach upon or appear to violate his honor, the Honor Court meets and administers punishment, accordingly. The Court is composed of all commanders, the Adjutant, and others whom the Court sees fit to elect by unanimous decision, the total membership not exceeding thirteen.

The Honor Court considers any case not covered by the Rules or Standards, in which the honor or character of a cadet, or the honor or well-being of the Corps as a whole is in any way involved, and makes the final decision.

The purpose of the Honor System of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets is to instill in the cadet a true sense of "Duty, Honor, and Country," and to help each cadet to develop within himself a feeling of self-respect and pride.

The purpose of the Honor System can be maintained only through the Honor Court and General Committee. The primary function of the General Committee is to maintain high standards in the Corps of Cadets. The General Committee consists of the commanders, class officers, and any other cadets whom the committee sees fit to elect by unanimous decision, the total membership not to exceed fifteen.

The General Committee accomplishes its purpose as follows:

1. By proper instruction of each recruit class.
2. By additional instruction of all classes as may be necessary.
3. By deciding on points of the Standards not clearly defined.
4. By calling to account those cadets who fail to uphold the standards.
5. By personal example.

THE RIFLE TEAM

Each cadet is given several hours of preliminary marksmanship instruction, consisting of subjects chosen by the director of marksmanship. After completion of these classes, a cadet has a chance to qualify. Qualication is based on scores fired in the four standard positions: prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing. Each cadet is required to make a score of thirty-seven out of a possible fifty in each position. These must be repeated until this score is recorded.

After all cadets have qualified, the platoon matches start. Each platoon selects a team to compete with all other platoon teams. Last come the inter-company matches. These are fired in the same manner as platoon matches, but each company has only one team. Each match has a direct bearing on the Efficiency Award at the end of the term.

Cadets who show the most ability in these matches are selected for the Rifle Team. Members of the Rifle Team receive many additional hours of instruction and practice in order to perfect their ability.

In the early fall the High-Powered Team is selected from the regular team. A member of this team must practice many hours to familiarize himself with the sights and shooting characteristics of the .30-caliber rifle. The matches are great fun. You get to talk with people who know a great deal about shooting. Also, many awards are given, such as, medals for the individual, and trophies for the winning team.

THE HOP COMMITTEE

The Hop Committee is a voluntary group composed of cadets from all companies and all drills. Each job that goes to making the Hop a success is taken care of by a separate committee. Each of these is supervised by a chairman.

The first big problem is the debatable question of the colors of the decorations and a plan for the arrangement of them. These are decided by the vote of the group. Next the various committees plan and carry out each phase of their assigned duties.

When all the tasks have been completed, the haphazard, hectic turmoil turns into an orderly, beautiful picture. The cadets who worked so hard and put so much time in preparing for this big event receive no reward other than the satisfaction in the feeling that they have done their part in making the ball a notable success.

ATH

John Marshall offers a variety of sports to students interested in athletics. For the boys, there is football, basketball, and softball; for the girls, hockey, basketball, and softball.

The athletic program is one of the best in the state. John Marshall is proud of its teams, not only for their good records but also for the good sportsmanship of the players. Games are always gay affairs as spectators yell and sing "Dixie" or "I am a Marshallite." Learning to be a good sport, whether one is a player or a spectator, is necessary in order to be able to get along with people, now—and in the future.

John Marshall began what developed into a heartbreaking season by unsetting favored Petersburg 25-22 on the Crimson Wave's field. Quarterback, supposedly the weak spot of the Big Blue, proved to be the strong point in Justice offense as Henry Pollard burst the bubble of doubt.

Then began a four-game losing streak. William Fleming, of Roanoke, slipped by the Justices to win 2-0 at the City Stadium. Highland Springs then topped J. M. 19-6 for the Springers' third consecutive win over the Big Blue. Manchester, depending on forceful fullback, Dickie Zullig, defeated John Marshall 6-0. The outcome of the next game was a surprise to no one. The powerful team play of Hermitage proved too much for the Justices as John Marshall was defeated 26-0 by the eventual state champions.

John Marshall then bounced back to avenge last year's upset by Lane, defeating the visiting Knights of Charlottesville 6-0. The Big Blue then traveled to Hopewell to receive a 28-6 walloping. Thomas Dale then downed J. M. 6-0.

Benedictine, believing the Justices were thinking only of the coming T. J. game, were crushed 28-0 by the Big Blue in its best showing of the year.

In the annual game with cross-town rival, Thomas Jefferson, John Marshall led in first downs (16-13) and rushing (273-235) but lost 34-12.

At the banquet given by the Jayem Dad's Club, each varsity player was presented with an imitation football. Dick Nolan and Allen Gibson were given their co-captain trophies. Calvin Farmer received the Best Offensive Player Trophy while Waylum "Shot" Mangum was awarded the Best Defensive Player Trophy. Bill Schwartz, for his outstanding play throughout the year, received the Most Valuable Player Trophy.

BASKETBALL

The John Marshall basketball team, under the direction of Coach Sattler Anderson, had a very successful season with a 14-7 record. The Justices placed third in the Central District regular season with a 12-6 mark.

Starting off right, the Big Blue won the first three games. Then, hit by a Friday-night jinx, the Justices dropped six games in a row on Friday nights while winning their Tuesday and Wednesday night games. Luckily, during the game against Highland Springs, the Friday jinx vanished, and the Big Blue went on to win the last four regular season games.

In their first game of the Central District Tournament, the Justices defeated Thomas Jefferson, 45-42. In the semi-finals, they lost their chance to go to the state tournament as they lost to Highland Springs. However, the Big Blue beat Petersburg in the consolation game for third place.

At the Dad's Club buffet supper and dance honoring the team, the players were given individual trophies and three awards. Captain Bill Chambers received the team's Most Valuable Player award; Charlie Mansini and Henry Pollard, the Best Foul Shooter and Best Defensive Player awards respectively.

Jayem's leading scorer, Charlie Mansini, was placed on the All-Metropolitan team. Bill Chambers made second team on both the Metro and Central District teams. Harvey Crone, who was injured at mid-season, also made the Central District second team.

TRACK

As Spring 1959 came, track season opened for the Justices. Track, the only self-reliant sport at John Marshall, has each of its participants almost on his own with the exception of a few fundamental instructions from the coaches. This year the Justices had only one letterman returning, John Southward, a junior who had high jumped the previous year. However, there was a big turnout of younger students which should give the Justice cindermen experience in the future. The year was one of very stiff competition from the other District teams as the Justice Thincladsmen dropped all six of their track meets.

BASEBALL

Kneeling are: Bill Moss, Dick Bagby, and C. G. Wilson with Coach Tommy Thompson.

The John Marshall baseball team began practice early in March with six lettermen returning.

All-central and metropolitan third-baseman, a three-year veteran, Bill Chambers, and four-year veterans, outfielder Tom Goode, and catcher Bill Schwartz, served as tri-captains.

The infield, composed of Chambers at third, Jim Sprouse holding down shortstop, newcomer Robert Turner at second, and Charlie Mansini commanding first, made up one of the best infields in the district.

The outfield duty will be held down by veteran Tom Goode in center, flanked by defensive standout, Clyde Ragland, in left, and alternates Branch Crooks, Bill Moss, and Garland Smith in right. Behind the plate will be Bill Schwartz calling the pitches.

Most of the pitchers in the league feared the hitters of the Justice nine. With the fearsome foursome made of Chambers, Goode, Schwartz, and Mansini, the Justices rank at the top of the league in hitting.

The Justices' young pitching staff, composed of sophomores Bill Smiley, Bill McNatt, and C. G. Winston, came through to back up the powerful Justice hitting.

The Big Blue also had a capable bench with infield reserves Charles Bailey, Gene Hopkins, and Bill Slayton, and catchers Dick Bagley and Jim Patterson.

HOCKEY

The year 1958 for the Lady Justices' field hockey team was a year to be proud of! The team walked away, winning all but one game, and placing five girls on the All-Prep Tidewater First Team and one on the Reserve Team. The proud five were "Tunie" Dooley, Lou Brown, Florence Barnard, Carolyn Coleman, and Frances Mayers. Charlotte Beverly made the Reserve Team.

The record for 1958 was a smashing 6-1-1, the team losing only to Hopewell 5-1 and tying St. Catherine's 1 to 1.

"Tunie" Dooley, the team's center forward and high scorer, set the pace that kept the team rolling. Carolyn Coleman, Sally Crenshaw, Pat Cook, and Jane Wynne were the other four scoring aces.

The backfield combined their strength to stymie their opponents and back up the forwards to help win the games. The senior backfielders, Lou Brown, Charlotte Beverly, and the goalie Florence Barnard, worked together to make their last hockey season one to remember. The other backfield players were Myra Van de Reit, Nancy Smiley, Carol Bishop, Jean Hebert and Frances Mayers. Lou Brown served as captain.

"Practice makes perfect," the coach, Miss Helen McKenney, always said. So our Lady Justices practiced hard at Hotchkiss Field with occasional "assists" and encouragements from their "faithful fans."

The junior varsity team wasn't in the winner's column, but the knowledge and experience the girls received while playing will help them qualify to fill the shoes left by the graduating varsity members.

The Justicettes, the girls' basketball team, ended its season with three wins against six defeats, statistics which hardly do justice to their skillful playing throughout the entire season.

In their first contest the Justicettes bowed to Manchester. Then they gave up three games to Thomas Jefferson, Collegiate, and St. Gertrude's, the latter two with a very narrow margin.

Suddenly the Lady Justices came to life again and slipped by formidable Hopewell to win in a two-minute overtime rally.

Lady Luck momentarily let the girls down when Thomas Dale managed to top the Justices by just one point.

Victory reigned over a two-game series for Jayem. First the Lady Justices swept past Petersburg to win by a considerable margin, and then they proceeded to slaughter Douglas Freeman by a tremendous twenty-seven point margin.

In their final contest the Lady Justices made a fine showing, but St. Gertrude's managed to top the Justicettes in a final stanza hussle.

Tunie Dooley led the team in scoring, as she racked up a fabulous 19.2 average, surpassing her 1958 record of 10.3. Carol Bishop came in second with a 11.6 average, a vast improvement over her 8.0 record of 1958. Carol Stinson placed third with a 6.3 average per game.

Mrs. Margaret Parham, who replaced Mrs. Elizabeth Royster, coached the Justicettes this season.

Six high schools were represented at the annual Basketball Tournament, which was held at R. P. I. Three Marshallites, Frances Mayer and Linda Pace, guards, and forward Carol Bishop, played exceptionally well and were elected to the All-Prep Team.

Flossie Barnard, the captain, will be the only team member lost by graduation.

That's a mighty determined look, Sandy. Let's hope you beat it out.

SOFTBALL

For two consecutive years the girls' softball team has come within one game of an undefeated season, and both times it was stopped by its county rival from Manchester. This year it was defeated 14-4.

Unlike last year's games, which were easily won, with margins from 10 to 15 points a game, this year's games proved much tighter, and the girls had to reinforce their teamwork and fight to pull the games out of the fire. The first game was a close one, with the girls defeating Thomas Dale 20-19. The second game, which was with St. Catherine's, had to go into extra innings, with the Justices finally winning it 12-10. They then went on to defeat Binford 23-19; Petersburg 8-5; Hopewell 16-3; Midlothian 6-5; and closed out the season by conquering Thomas Jefferson 6-4.

Seven lettermen returned, three of whom were seniors, Brenda Fisher, Norma Foster, and Sandy Foster, who served as tri-captains. Others returning were Tunie Dooley, first baseman and pitcher; Florence Barnard, third base and catcher; Jackie Hendrix, right field; and Nancy Smiley, also right field.

Newcomers who proved very important to the team's success were lefty Frances Mayer, catcher, who batted a powerful .440 and scored 19 runs; and Nancy Harris, who shared the pitching duties (4-0) with Tunie Dooley (5-1).

Out of the starting lineup, four players ended the season with averages over .350. Tunie led with a sizzling .586; following in second place with leftfielder and first baseman Brenda Fisher with .450; and only a couple of hits away came Frances Mayer with a .440 average. Other top batsmen were Sandy Foster with .375 and Nancy Harris with .348. Slugger Tunie Dooley also led in homeruns with 3, followed by Judy Newby with 2. Frances Mayer, Nancy Harris, and Myra Van de Riet scored one homerun a piece.

Brenda Fisher tied with Frances Mayer for the most runs scored, each making 19. Brenda also led in thefts, with 22 stolen bases, three of which were home.

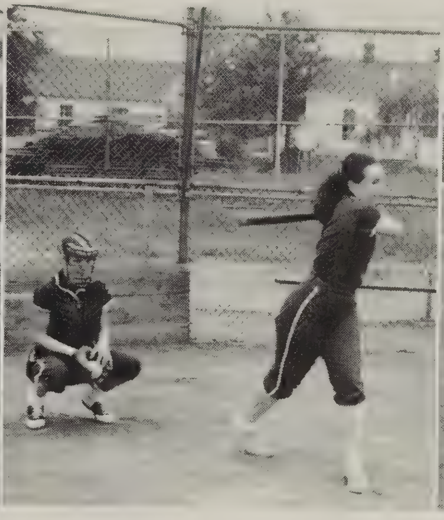
Since Manchester will lose a number of players through graduation and the Lady Justices only three, next year should prove a very successful season for the Ladies.

Now you know, let's see you do it.

You deserve to look proud, Homerun Sluggers. That's the way to swish those bats.

Too bad, Frances, Brenda's safe.

oks like you're sending that one for a long ride, Myra.
y looks as if she's wondering how you do it.



What did she throw you, Flossie, a super-duper curve?

Well Slugger, you can pitch, too? What's it going to be ump? Looks good from here.

Atta girl, Nancy, it's a strike!

Brenda doesn't catch it with her open mouth.

Cheer Leaders

The maxim, "Practice makes perfect," prompted Jayem cheerleaders to practice school yells at Hotchkiss Field every Tuesday and Thursday night during the summer vacation. Seven new cheerleaders had to learn all the old cheers, and the whole group learned several new yells.

The 12-girl squad made its first appearance on orientation day, September 5, when they welcomed new students to John Marshall with cheers and school songs. After the welcoming assembly, cheerleaders and students gathered on the school lawn for the first of a series of pep rallies held during football and basketball seasons.

The cheerleaders traveled to Petersburg on September 19 for the first game of the football season. Wearing traditional white uniforms, the squad led the excited crowd in familiar yells as Jayem beat Petersburg 25-22.

October found the cheerleaders riding in the Tobacco Bowl Festival parade.

The girls participated in Thalhimer's annual district cheer rally at the Benedictine gym on October 18. Along with the senior class, the senior cheerleaders were guests at the Community Chest luncheon on October 27. The girls led the group in yells for the Community Chest.

The most spirited occasion of the year, the annual Jayem-Teejay football game, had our Justice cheerleaders scurrying about. On both mornings preceding the big game, they led pep rallies on the lawn. On the night before the game, radio station WLEE broadcast the pep rally held in the auditorium. On the morning of the big game, a pep rally was held on the lawn. All during the day cheers rang out through the halls of Jayem.

With the same loyal enthusiasm they had displayed for the football team, the cheerleaders supported the basketball team. The season opened on December 16, when Jayem defeated Douglas Freeman on their court 70-67. On February 27, cheerleaders and team traveled to Albemarle High School for the last game of the season. The Justices triumphed 67-60.

On March 7, the Dad's Club gave a victory dance for the basketball team and the cheerleaders. The cheerleaders were given trophies with models of cheerleaders on them.

Backing up the football and basketball teams right to the end, the cheerleaders had a great year.

School Song

Dear old John Marshall
Home of our high school days,
We'll always sing your praise
And loyal be.
We'll work to win more fame
And fairly play life's game,
More glory to your name,
John Marshall High.

SENIOR CHEERLEADERS

ROLL

Whether you've participated in one or a dozen organizations during your high school life makes little difference. Whether you become president of the United States or just an office clerk matters not—as long as you keep a song in your heart—for it is the song that will really help you find happiness. No matter what you seek as your life career, you will succeed if you remember to "Be the Best of Whatever You Are."

Are you that "Special" Gal we're looking for?

We hope so. Because we have interesting jobs for "special" gals here at the telephone company.

If you're alert and like people, you'll like it here. The surroundings are pleasant, the pay is good right from the start—and you'll have lots of opportunity for advancement and raises.

There's a "special" extra, too. You'll have that wonderful feeling of making an important contribution to your community. Come talk to us about telephone work. We'd love to meet you!

The Mark of A Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

SPECIAL REPORT TO YOUNG MEN OF TOMORROW

UNLIMITED OPPORTUNITY

awaits you in the pulp and paper industry

WHERE WILL you go after high school To work? To trade school? To College? For the young man interested in college training, the pulp and paper industry has a continuing need for new technical personnel and offers unlimited opportunities for advancement in this exciting field.

THE SPECTACULAR growth of this industry makes possible top wages and security in a host of highly skilled technical positions. A four-year college education is preferred for such positions as pulp technologists, plant chemists, quality control specialists and production trainees.

SCHOLARSHIP help at North Carolina State College in Raleigh is available for college majors in pulp and paper technology, and highly remunerative employment within the industry is usually available during the summer vacation periods. Graduates of this program are qualified for quick advancement in production, technical and top management positions within the industry. Applications for pulp and paper scholarships for the academic year beginning next fall must be made by May 15.

IF YOU are a young man in high school who has above average grades in math, physics, chemistry and related subjects, we urge you to contact us or your Guidance Coordinator. We will gladly explain to you in detail about the opportunities awaiting you in this fascinating industry.
